OFFICIAL PROGRAMME

ALL THE SHOW HIGHLIGHTS • FULL EXHIBITOR LIST

in association with

ALEXANDRA PARK, EPSOM
20 - 23 NOVEMBER
www.theflowershow.co.nz

Auckland City Council is glad to support the Auckland Flower Show at Alexandra Park, Greenlane.

I know the Auckland Flower Show will bring inspiration to both local and international visitors with colourful vistas to enjoy and ideas to implement.

Alexandra Park is close to the boutique style shopping at Newmarket, beautiful Cornwall Park and One Tree Hill, and the Waitemata Harbour at the foot of Auckland's central business district a short journey away.

We wish the Auckland Flower Show much success and look forward to this event each year.

His Worship Hon Mayor Banks, QSO

The Auckland Flower Show 2008 is proud to showcase the creative work of its world class designers, both garden and floral, in an all-weather environment. Visitors can literally get above the gardens and enjoy a unique view of them from the sheltered Alexandra Park grandstands.

It is a pleasure to present visitors with such a wide range of Show Gardens, all of which reveal entrancing interpretations from the designers. Two late night sessions enable garden designers to integrate the art of night lighting into their exhibitions, and allow visitors who cannot attend during the day to enjoy this spectacle.

The Show Gardens area forms an attractive avenue to stroll along. The linear layout makes access easy and the different categories of gardens simple to find. In addition to the large (12m x 12m) Exhibition Gardens, that are the traditional stars of a Flower Show, we have Courtyard Gardens, Kiwi Back Gardens, Planted Borders and the Horticulture Avenue.

There is a strong emphasis on flowers with two indoor, air-conditioned halls providing designers with the perfect environment for their delicate displays. The Floral Design Hall brings professional florists together, working to a theme of 'Fusion Flowers'. The Floral Art Hall hosts floral clubs and societies, revealing their interpretation on 'Dancing with the Flowers'.

Completing the package of attractions is a wide range of entertainment and art as well as a unique retail precinct in the Alexandra Park stables area.

We hope you enjoy the show.

Andrew Pfeiffer 'A Sense of Place'

Andrew is a truly international Landscape Designer. For many years, he has divided his time between gardens in Sydney, England and France, North and South America and other European countries. He has written about his work in three inspiring books: 'A Sense of Place', 1999, 'Creating Style' (Pleasure of Gardening), 1992 and 'Australian Garden Design', 1985.

'A Sense of Place' showcases a selection of the gardens in different parts of the world including Australia, Spain, the United States, Uruguay and France. In her review of the book for the English magazine Gardens Illustrated, Jinny Blom said, "(T) his book is notable for the passion and energy (Andrew Pfeiffer) applies to his work: hunting for exactly the right palms with bent trunks 'to animate' a garden, humping huge rocks around with the aid of a crane to achieve a certain character for a waterfall or living in a hut up a Majorcan mountain to understand the maquis landscape. These details set him apart from the majority of designers".

Andrew will talk about his own work - an experience not to be missed.

Jim Fogarty 'Designing Gardens in Australia' & 'Show Gardens'

Jim Fogarty designs gardens for private and commercial clients as well as designing show gardens. He has won numerous awards at the Melbourne International Flower & Garden Show and has twice won the City of Melbourne Best in Show Award.

Jim was invited by the Singapore National Parks Board to compete in the 2006 Inaugural Singapore Garden Festival where he was amongst the top medal winners. At the 2008 Singapore Garden Festival, he was awarded a Gold Medal. Jim will talk about designing gardens in Australia as well as his experiences designing Show Gardens. www.jimfogartydesign.com.au

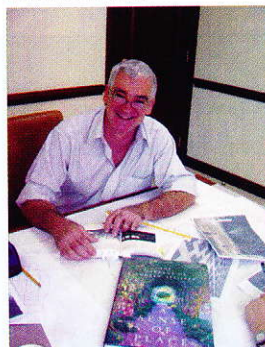

Mark Pampling 'Inspiration Restructured'

Inspiration can be both an abundant and an elusive friend for floral designers. Mark will discuss the many and varied sources of his inspiration and how a simple spark in the imagination can kick start the design process. From initial inspiration, through perspiration to final satisfaction, Mark will take you through his journeys in botanical creativity.

Iain Stephens 'Guns and Roses'

Iain will speak of his experiences as the NZ entrant for the Interflora World Cup 2004 in Melbourne. Hear about the preparation, the event and how it took him in Europe the following year, working for celebrities and the rich and famous on the French Riviera. Iain will also speak about the next Interflora world cup in Shanghai 2010 and his involvement as 2nd in charge, and of becoming President of Interflora Pacific Unit in Shanghai 2 days before the cup...

Andrew Pfeiffer

Jim Fogarty

Julie Moore

Rose Thodey & Gil Hanly 'The Artful Gardener'

Rose has been a gardening writer for nearly 20 years, principally with New Zealand Herald & New Zealand Gardener. She has contributed to several books and in 2006 collaborated with Gil Hanley on the fabulous 'Landscape, Gardens by New Zealand's Top Designers'. Gil has been a photographer for over 25 years, contributing to 15 gardening books.

Rose will present words, with Gil's images, from their recently published book 'The Artful Gardener'. Be inspired to experiment with the concept of art in the garden and the garden as art. Books will be available for sale & signing at the end of the talk.

Mark Dean 'Gardening and the Coastal Dune Environment'

Mark Dean is the founder and a director of Naturally Native NZ Plants. He has been involved in restoration planting projects for over 25 years, including dune restoration. Mark is currently chair of the NZ Dune Restoration Trust. He has considerable experience in planting on sand dunes and coastal garden environment.

Terry Hatch 'Native Hedging Plants'

Terry Hatch has been a plants person for over 50 years. He trained in England before emigrating to New Zealand where he established Joy Plants in 1965. He has won numerous top Ellerslie Flower Show awards & worked on the '100% New Zealand' Gold winning Chelsea Flower Show exhibit. Terry is currently president of the International Plant Propagators Society & member of NZ Gardens Trust. He will demonstrate some original ideas for use of native plants as hedging.

Julie Moore 'The Subtropical Picking Garden' & 'The Edible Garden'

For more than 20 years Julie Moore has been involved not only in all aspects of the landscaping arena but also in floral displays. She has created numerous top award winning displays for the Ellerslie Flower Show, (including Peoples Choice & Supreme awards)

Having grown cut foliage and flowers for export she brings a different slant to designing gardens with her innovative ideas, both as a florist and a designer. Plants are selected for aesthetics and function.

Roy Neale 'Growing Orchids'

Roy is presently serving his second term as president of the Waitakere Orchid Club (previously Auckland Orchid Club), and is Vice President of the Orchid Council of NZ. He has been growing and breeding orchids for 28 years, mainly cymbidiums, but is now changing direction and growing a mixture of other genera with a view to hobby growing rather than commercial.

Lynda Hallinan & Jane Wrigglesworth 'Homegrown Herbs'

Learn how to grow, harvest and eat your own fresh herbs this summer with entertaining advice from Lynda Hallinan & Jane Wrigglesworth from New Zealand Gardener magazine. Lynda and Jane will also be signing copies of NZ Gardener's latest special collector's edition about herbs.

Andrew Boylan 'Bring your Garden Alive with Fruit'

The founder of the incredible edibles® range will present new and interesting ways to bring edible plants into your gardens. Ever heard of Japanese Raisins or Ice-cream Beans? How about growing your own coffee or tea? Come along and find out about them and become the talk of your street.

Kay Baxter 'Organics - is it enough?' & 'Heritage Plants'

A founder of the Koanga Institute, Kay Baxter has been collecting and growing heritage fruit trees, vegetables & flowers for over 25 years. "As a home gardener I've always been a committed 'organic' grower, however I'm realising now that organic does not necessarily mean nutritious food. Perhaps we have to take another look?", asks Kay.

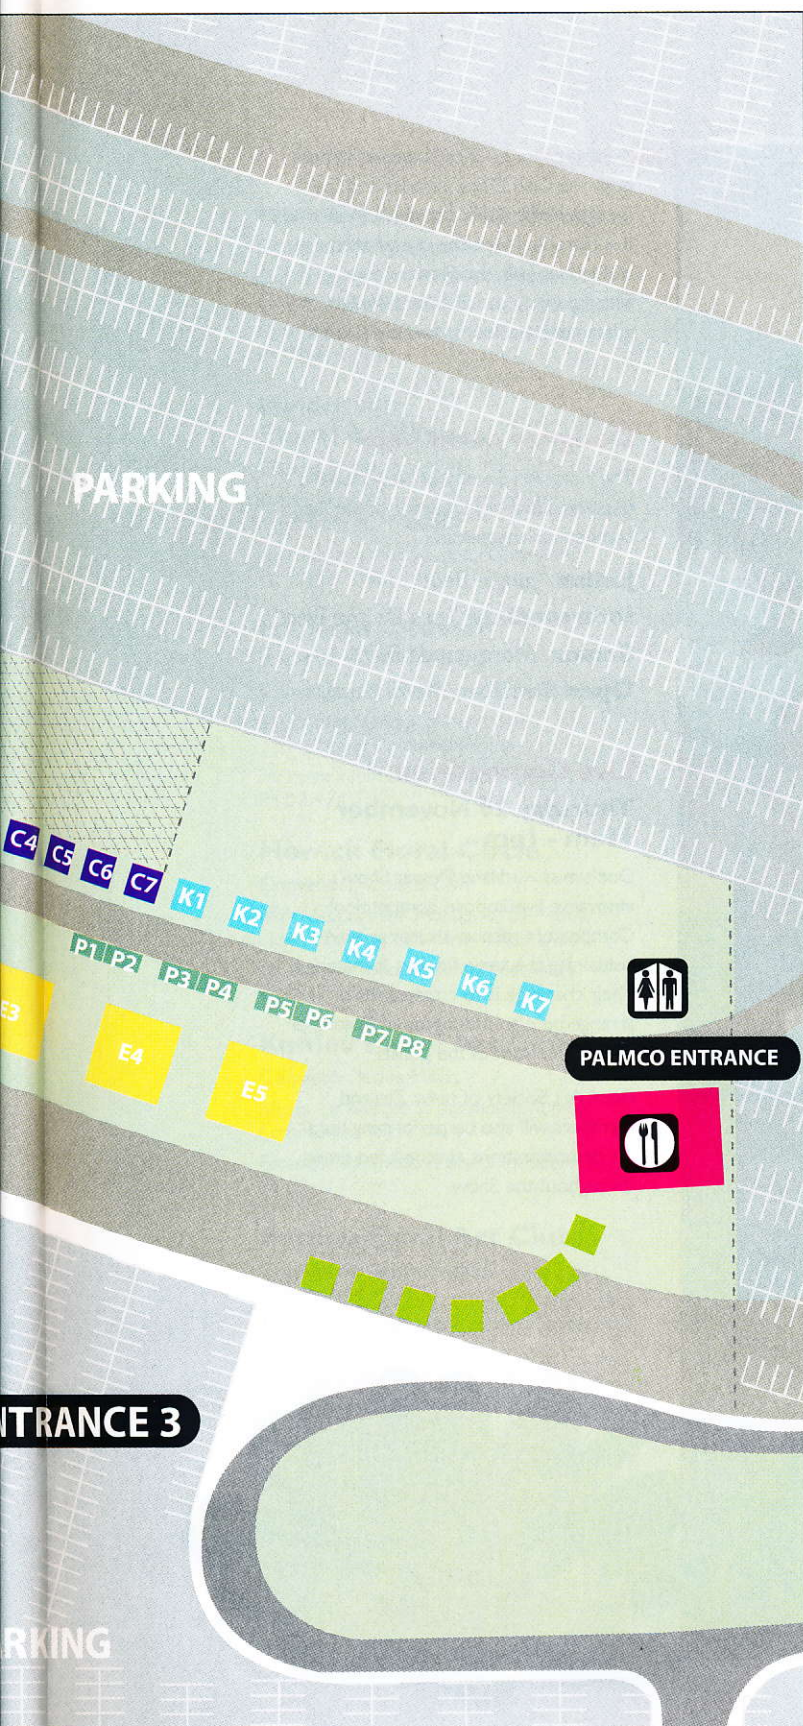

What role have heritage plants played in the past? What role could they play in the future? In light of current understandings of their superior nutritional content and the serious malnutrition that is widespread amongst probably all of us - how can we best save them so we have them for the future? www.koanga.org.nz

FLORAL ART HALL

Sweet Pea Show

A stunning new collection of sweet peas from New Zealand plant breeder Dr Keith Hammett has inspired artist Murray Grimsdale to achieve a long-held ambition. Mr Grimsdale was commissioned to paint a unique set of screens for the presentation of Dr Hammett's new sweet pea varieties at the Auckland Flower Show. The end effect promises to be spectacularly theatrical, displaying both the new sweet peas and Mr Grimsdale's artwork in a way that will enthrall. The display will be set up indoors, within the Floral Art Hall, which enables a whole new approach to the integration of art and light into the designers' work.

Design and arrangement of the sweet peas done by Floral Artist Anna Hodson, who is a member of Takapuna Floral Art Club. Anna is winner of Junior & Intermediate classes at Auckland Designer of the Year and several times winner of gold award in club team at Ellerslie Flower Show.

FLORAL DESIGN HALL

Auckland Flower Show is proud to host several major events in our Floral Design Hall. In addition to the Interflora Pacific Cup (Auckland Region) finals, themed 'East meets West', we have professional florists creating fabulous displays to the theme of 'Fusion Flowers', students exhibiting their FloraMax NZPF Student Florist of the Year entries and the creation of a massive Floral Extravaganza.

Floral Extravaganza

Iain Stevens & Mark Pamplung are creating a massive 8 x 4m, commissioned Floral Extravaganza. It's going to be big, bright and bold and will fit within this year's professional floral designers' competition theme of Fusion Flowers.

Both designers are at the pinnacle of their sectors in their respective countries. Iain regularly created gold-medal-winning designs for the Ellerslie Flower Show for many years, before becoming a judge of the professional floral design competition in more recent years. In Australia, Mark has won numerous state and national floristry titles, and was third in the Interflora Asia Pacific Floral Design Competition at this year's Melbourne International Flower and Garden Show.

A big thank you to our sponsors:

Lions on the landscape

The Lions welcome all show visitors to come to their display and learn of some of the activities Lions clubs perform in your community. They also invite you to have a free health check from the team.
